

Utilities - Permit Phase/---60%--->

The primary objective of the permit phase is to prepare plans and design calculations that can be used to apply for the regulatory permit. At this stage the roadway and drainage design are complete and this allows the Right of Way Acquisition process to begin.

